KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Fidel Castro today rejected the latest offer of tractors for Freedom Committee saying that the committee did not tell the truth when it stated Castro had changed his proposal in order to confuse public opinion, Havana radio reported.

Castro was quoted by the radio as saying, however, that he was authorizing the same committee of prisoners who came to the United States to negotiate the exchange to return to meet with the Tractors for Freedom Committee and to explain the Cuban position to the American public.

The radio quoted Castro as saying that from the first he had clearly specified the number and type of tractors he wanted.

Ford Draws Fire for Bond Stand

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Education Commissioner Arch Ford has drawn fire from four present or past officials of the Arkansas Education Association for soliciting teacher support for the proposed construction bond issue.

The four teachers said it was not Ford's job to tell teachers how to vote, and one of them, Miss Maxine Chapman of Fort Smith, said he should apologize and resign.

They echoed G. F. Castleberry of Newport, current AEA president, who had said that Ford had capitulated to political pressure in sending letters to each state teacher asking them to support the bonds.

Miss Elizabeth Lee of Helena asked "How can Mr. Ford have the audacity to recommend that the teachers vote for a proposition that will take funds that would otherwise be available to teachers' salaries?"

Miss Kay Shaddock of El Dorado said Ford was doing "only what he is told to do by members of the administration."

"I have never known a commissioner to try to tell teachers how to vote in the past," said Mrs. Ruth Jennings of Russellville.

Sees Solidarity of Free World

WASHINGTON (AP)—Japanese Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda closed out his Washington visit today with a statement that his three days with President Kennedy and other U.S. leaders had demonstrated anew the solidarity of the free world.

He made that farewell comment at National Airport just before his takeoff.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, saying the ceremonial farewell at the airport, generally echoed Ikeda's views. He said the visit "represents a high point in the relations of the United States and Japan." Rusk described the talks as "most useful."

Full military honors were rendered before Ikeda and his wife boarded the big plane for New York where the prime minister's first engagement was with United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld.

Club Youths Have Day of Activity

June 21st was county 4-H Club activity day in Hope. Approximately 100 4-H club boys, girls, and leaders, used the facilities of the City Hall and Youth Center to conduct activities in baking, a dress revue, demonstrations, and talent.

In the dress revue three types of dresses were modeled. The dress-up dress, school dress and play dress. The overall county winner in the dress revue was Janet Roberts, Victory Club, who modeled the first place dress-up garment.

In the school division for the juniors Frances Middlebrooks of Triple A Club, won first and the senior winner was Jenny Lee Waters of the Triple A Club. The play division was won by Helen McCormick, Victory Club, for the junior winner and Carol Jean Shepard of Triple A Club was the senior winner.

Winners in the method demonstration contest for the juniors were Calvin Willis, A award, DeAnn Club; Helen McCormick, B award, Victory Club; Charles Arnold, B award, DeAnn Club. In the senior division, Sandra Wright, A award with excellent rating, Shover Springs; Ruth Wright, A award, Shover Springs; Elizabeth Smith, B award, Victory Club; Sharon Evans, B award, Shover Springs.

In the baking contest, Junior division, first place winners were: Helen McCormick, Victory Club, cake; Linda Reese, Shover Springs, cookies; Barbara Avery, DeAnn, muffins; Calvin Willis, DeAnn, biscuits.

In the senior division in baking first place winners include: Elizabeth Smith, Victory, cake; Carolyn McKee, Victory, and Norma Tye, Shover Springs, tied in cookie baking and also tied as overall county winners in the baking contest; Linda Arrington, Shover Springs, muffins.

Ann Arnold, DeAnn Club, won first place in the talent contest with a piano solo. Sharon Evans, Shover Springs, second place, gave a reading. The "Five Bells" from Victory presented a skit and sang. The "Four Teens" from DeAnn did a pantomime song routine.

This days activities was made possible by the hard work and cooperation of the 4-H Club leaders and others interested in the future of 4-H Club work in Hempstead county.

Mrs. Wayward Burke of DeAnn was in charge of the dress revue. Her judges were Mrs. T. B. Fenwick, Mrs. Perry Moses, and Mrs. Bob Daniels, Home Economics teacher at Blevins.

Mrs. Arnold Middlebrooks of the Triple A 4-H Club was in charge of the baking contest and her judges were Mrs. Loyd Smittle and Mrs. Buster Gilbert.

Mrs. Dail Ravenscraft of Guernsey Club and Mrs. William Schooley, Victory Club, were in charge of the method demonstrations. They had for their judges Mrs. Paul Holt and Mr. G. E. Tanner, former county agent of Nevada county.

Mrs. Joy Case, Extension Secretary, was in charge of the talent contest as well as being a judge and was assisted by Mrs. Edward Evans and Norman Bradford of Radio Station KXAR.

The tractor driving contest will be held at Fair Park June 28 at 9:30 a. m.

Craighead Group Favors Bonds

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Directors of the Craighead County Farm Bureau voted unanimously Thursday night for a resolution approving the $60 million state construction bond issue which will be voted on next Tuesday.

Proposal by Goldberg Is Rejected

NEW YORK (AP)—Two of six striking seamen's unions today turned down Labor Secretary Goldberg's proposed 60-day truce in the national maritime strike. The shipowners previously had accepted the proposal.

The rejection came from the Seafarers International Union and the Marine Engineers Union. They said acceptance of Goldberg's fact-finding truce would be "a surrender of our basic function and right as a free trade union."

"It would set a highly undesirable precedent which could severely restrict the ability of unions to negotiate their own contracts across the bargaining table," the two unions added in a telegram to Goldberg.

NEW YORK (AP)—Shipowners today accepted a proposal of Secretary of Labor Goldberg for a 60-day truce in the national maritime strike but the striking unions did not immediately give their decision on the matter.

NEW YORK (AP)—A rapid-fire series of meetings was called today for parties in the eight-day maritime strike to decide whether to accept a government peace plan.

They could accept Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg's proposal for a voluntary 60-day suspension of the three-coast walkout or face the possibility of a Taft-Hartley Law 80-day injunction.

The meetings were set up by William E. Simkin, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

He was to meet in succession with marine engineers; the powerful National Maritime Union; the Masters, Mates and Pilots; and then with representatives of the shipping owners.

President Kennedy is ready, if the striking unions and industry agree, to name a three-man committee to weigh all issues and produce a recommended solution.

Goldberg called for acceptance by 1 p.m. EST Saturday.

Stay Granted on Court's Red Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—Justice Frankfurter of the Supreme Court granted today a stay of effectiveness of the court's decision that the Communist party must register as a tool of Moscow.

The stay was granted after the party filed a petition asking the high court to reconsider its decision, announced June 5.

The court is now in summer adjournment. Its order to lower courts to make the ruling effective, was scheduled for issuance today. Frankfurter's stay defers it until the justices act on the petition for reconsideration. Thus the June 5 decision likely will remain ineffective until at least Oct. 9.

Communist party officials declared after the June 5 decision that they did not plan to register with the Justice Department, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said proceedings against the party would be started Aug. 9. Frankfurter's stay also has the effect of deferring this Justice Department action.

His deferment was opposed by the Justice Department.

Frankfurter was the author of the June 5 decision. It upheld the constitutionality of the 1950 Subversive Activities Control Act.

Counsel for the Communist party, in their petition for reconsideration, said that the Supreme Court's decision "on the basis of legislative findings without regard to the record facts and findings, destroys the protection of the first amendment. It permits the legislature to outlaw any dissident political group simply by making opprobrious findings."

Will Support Any Member Running

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas County Treasurers Association amended its by-laws Thursday to permit the association to support any member running for election.

Fifty-four treasurers and seven deputies attended a special meeting of the group here.

Wade Tatom of Lafayette County was elected as the new president, Jimmy Parks of Poinsett County as vice president and Mrs. Marion Seagraves of Arkansas County as secretary-treasurer.

Scarbeck in a Plea of Innocent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Irvin C. Scarbeck, former U.S. Embassy official in Warsaw, today pleaded innocent to charges of passing government secrets to Polish Communists.

Atty. Samuel C. Klein entered the plea for Scarbeck before U.S. Dist. Judge John J. Sirica who set the trial to begin July 18.

Scarbeck did not speak at his brief arraignment.

The 41-year-old defendant was returned to the District of Columbia jail, unable to post $50,000 bond.

Judge Sirica denied a motion by Klein to reduce the bail.

After the arraignment, Klein told reporters outside the court room that Scarbeck "has been in a state of shock."

He said circumstances leading to Scarbeck's arrest in downtown Washington June 13 had placed him under great pressure, partly because of his love for a Polish woman.

Justice Department officials have said that Scarbeck, who is married, was blackmailed by Communist agents as a result of a relationship he had established with a Polish blonde.

Aldermen Fight to Retain Posts

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Three aldermen ousted from the Clarksville City Council by Mayor Leo Patton have filed suit to get their jobs back.

Plaintiffs in the Johnson Circuit Court suit are Joe Mills, Vintrix Clark and Levon Stambaugh. Patton declared their seats vacant Monday night on the ground that they had missed the last four council meetings.

Mills, Clark and Stambaugh asked the court to restrain their replacements from taking office.

Eichmann Says He Saved 20,000 Jews

By THOMAS A. REEDY

JEKUSALEM (AP) — Adolf Eichmann claimed today that he saved 20,000 Jews from extermination by diverting them to an already overcrowded ghetto in Lodz, Poland.

The former Gestapo officer charged by Israel with major responsibility for the Nazi extermination of six million Jews also claimed that the diversion of the 20,000 to Lodz was the first and only time that he had the chance to make such a decision.

Otherwise, he asserted, his superiors were responsible for extermination orders and he only arranged for the transport of the Jews to the death camps.

"I had the choice personally to determine the fate of these 20,000 Jews," he told the three-judge Israeli court, "and I did not want them to be sent to the East where I knew extermination was going on but sent them to Lodz where I knew that no such thing was going on."

The former Gestapo lieutenant colonel, in his fourth day on the witness stand, testified:

1. SS Gen. Heinrich Mueller, his immediate superior in charge of Department IV of the security police, had "the direct contact" with the Einsatzkommandos, the blitz battalions that murdered two million Jews, partisans and Gypsies in the East.

2. Interior Minister Wilhelm Frick and SS Reichsfuehrer Heinrich Himmler teamed to create the framework that led to the deliberate extermination of the Jews on an order from Adolf Hitler.

Eichmann certified documents introduced by his counsel, Dr. Robert Servatius, as showing that Gestapo Department II supplied the gas vans and trucks used by the Einsatzkommandos.

"I gave no orders nor made any arrangements. My Department IV-B-4 had no connection with these affairs," Eichmann declared.

Beefed-Up Bill for Defense Is Advanced

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's beefed-up defense budget was approved almost to the letter today by the House Appropriations Committee as it painted a dismal picture of world conditions.

The committee sent to the House floor for debate a bill providing $42.7 billion in defense funds for the fiscal year starting July 1. The money will expand the Polarix submarine fleet, buy more big bombers and missiles, and finance larger armed forces.

While this was a technical cut of $231 million from the amount requested by the President, a bookkeeping transaction reduced the actual cut to $6.2 million.

It is $2.4 billion more than the military was given by Congress for the current fiscal year.

In a formal report written by Rep. George Mahon, D-Tex., the committee said it followed the President's defense program closely because of "the worsening world situation."

It said it felt that the military strength of the United States was superior to that of the Soviet Union and would remain that way.

"The threat of global war has not lessened," it continued. "The threat of limited war has not lessened. Indeed, it is felt that there has been a general worsening of the international situation since last summer. The prospect for an early settlement of major world problems is dim. This is a time for firmness, strength and resolution."

Faubus in Threat to SCS Funds

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus has written soil conservation officials that if his proposed bond issue fails, soil and water conservation district funds may be cut.

W. W. Wren, chairman of the Desha County Soil Conservation District, first disclosed receiving the letter.

Later Arthur W. Campbell, chairman of the Pulaski district, said he also had received a copy.

Campbell, who said he opposes the bond issue, called the letter an apparent threat.

The 1961 legislature appropriated $16,000 for each district to supplement federal funds. Faubus said if other worthwhile projects had to be cut because the bond issue failed, "certainly the legislature would look for other appropriations that could be eliminated or curtailed. I have no doubt that this would include the appropriation for the Soil Conservation Districts."

Mental Test for Malvern Slayer

MALVERN, Ark. (AP) — A 30-day mental examination was ordered Thursday for William Schuler Joe, 22-year-old unemployed Negro who killed two persons and wounded five others during a shooting orgy here Wednesday.

Circuit Judge Henry B. Means committed Joe to the State Hospital after a brief hearing.

Joe, who was held in an undisclosed jail Wednesday night, appeared at the hearing.

Joe shot three persons, killing two, in the state Employment Security Division office here, then wounded three others before he was captured in a weed patch near his home.

Prosecutor Lawson Glover said Joe apparently started shooting because he was angry at being made to wait for service in the ESD office. He used a stolen .30 caliber rifle.

Arkansas Plant to Get Work

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — An estimated 80 workers at the U.S. Rubber Co. plant here will be laid off over a period of several weeks.

S. I. Strikshouser, plant manager said Thursday night.

He said the plant is finishing work on a Mark V 15-man life raft contract and that there is no other contract now in sight.

Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. was low bidder for an order of 1,500 rafts, and if it wins contract approval will carry out the work at its plant at Magnolia, Ark.

Safe Stolen a Year Ago Found

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A safe stolen more than four years ago was recovered Thursday from a water-filled bauxite pit south of here.

The safe, containing only $1,000 in cancelled checks, was stolen in 1957 from the Amvets Club.

Police recovered the safe after they went to the pit on a tip that it might contain a safe stolen in a burglary three weeks ago.

Newspapers Generally Against Bond

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Most Arkansas newspaper editors are against Gov. Orval E. Faubus' proposed $60 million bond issue which goes before the state voters next Tuesday, a poll shows but several are vigorously in favor of the plan.

The Arkansas Democrat and the Arkansas Gazette have been editorializing against the bond issue for several weeks, and the Pine Bluff Commercial has run about 40 editorials against it.

But the Jonesboro Sun, the Fayetteville Northwest Arkansas Times, the Conway Log Cabin Democrat and the Searcy Citizen have told their readers they favor the bonds, which would provide construction money for state colleges and institutions.

The Sun said it believes "The needs of state institutions can no longer be neglected and that the bond issue merits approval."

The Commercial said the bond proposal asks voters to take "on good faith the wisdom and good intentions of a state administration which has systematically devalued a $60 million spending program of customary safeguards."

The Hope Star, against the measure, said "either the public school system will be cut back or you'll face a thundering new tax."

The Fayetteville Northwest Arkansas Times said the bond issue "means more buildings on every college campus" and should be passed.

The Harrison Times, against the bonds, said "Bond brokers win elections when voters stay home." And the Helena World (against), added "If you vote for the $60 million bond deal you are going on record as favoring higher taxes."

The Searcy Citizen, for the bonds, said "We must now at least make the attempt to equalize our secondary school system and our higher education system. We believe the only possible way to do this without saddling our people with more and more taxation is through the proposed bond issue."

The Conway Log Cabin Democrat said a bond issue "appears to us as a practical, conservative way for a state to raise funds for a comprehensive program whereby large sums of money are needed quickly in order to meet needs now."

A poll of 10 weeklies turned up seven in opposition, two in support, and one with no editorial stand.

Says Public Helps Own Flood Losses

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A U.S. Engineers official said here Thursday that farmers and businessmen contribute to their own flood losses by overdeveloping the river valleys.

Col. Arthur M. Jacoby, Little Rock District Engineer, said the natural tendency is to overestimate the protection afforded by flood control dams.

He told the Arkansas-White-River Inter-agency committee that the flood plain is as much a part of the natural rivers as its bed and banks but that the average person tends to overlook this.

"Instead as time moves on," Jacoby said, "more and more industry locates on flood plains where transportation is cheaper and large flat areas are available for plant construction."

"The modern trend toward large economical housing development naturally seeks the same flat areas, and the farmer risks more in lowland plantings because the profits are so attractive in flat, alluvial deposits."

The Inter-Agency Committee is composed of state and federal officials from eight states interested in development of the Arkansas, White and Red Rivers. It held its bi-monthly meeting here.

Faubus Labels All Opponents Integrationists

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus landed on critics of his proposed bond issue with both feet Thursday night, calling them a nest of integrationists who are trying to hurt his prestige.

In a statewide radio and television address, the governor branded almost every important critic of the $60 million construction bond issue as an integrationist or racial moderate.

Four of those labelled replied with news releases soon after the speech. One asked if the governor's career was at stake in the election Tuesday. Others said Faubus was ill at ease, and making a "last desperate effort" on behalf of the bonds.

Three leading bond opponents, Pulaski Rep. Gayle Windsor Jr., attorney Eugene R. Warren, and Joshua K. Shephard, head of an anti-bond committee, also made televised speeches Thursday night.

Faubus said a "hard core of integrationists and racial moderates in Little Rock" are fighting the bonds as a means of damaging him politically.

He said they favor the bonds as much but oppose them merely because Faubus has sponsored them. "Who constitutes this hard core of moderates?" he asked, then he began listing names.

The names included that of Dr. E. W. L. McDonald, editor of the Arkansas Baptist newsmagazine, whom Faubus called "the half-pint editor of my own Baptist magazine." Others on the list were Pulaski Rep. Gayle Windsor; state Sen. Roy W. Milum of Harrison; Dr. Dale Cowling, pastor of the Little Rock Second Baptist Church, former Govs. Ben Laney and Sid McMath; I. S. McClinton, president of the Arkansas (Negro) Democratic Voters' Association, and Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Association.

Shepherd, who also was on Faubus' list called in a speech at Fort Smith Thursday night for an important state-wide committee to make a survey and develop recommendations for a building program.

Windsor, another mentioned by the governor among those who "want forcible desegregation," said at Little Rock that promoters of the bond plan were trying to cover up an existing $20,305,000 surplus in the state treasury.

Warren, whose name also was listed, said at Texarkana that passage of the bond issue would make a tax increase inevitable.

James E. McDaniel of Jonesboro, an attorney who stumped for Faubus during the governor's last gubernatorial campaign, came out against the bonds in a speech on Memphis television.

"I guarantee that there will have to be an additional tax to pay off the bonds," McDaniel said. He said that the bonds would be under political control of a board appointed by Faubus.

The governor defended that board in his speech. He said the charge against the board "reflected on the honesty and integrity of the board members." They included state Treasurer J. Vance Clayton, Auditor Jimmie (Red) Jones, Comptroller L. A. Mashburn, Bank Commissioner Dick Simpson, Faubus and Frank A. Storey, board secretary.

Faubus said Rozzell and other bond opponents including Pulaski Rep. J. H. Culbreth, had drafted and supported another bond program which was almost identical to the governor's but which did not pass the legislature. Faubus said his plan was preferable because the other made no provision to safeguard the funds of state agencies.

Only Church to Operate in Cavern

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Hold church services in a cave?

"Why not?" asks the Rev. Lyman Riley, who believes he is the only member of the clergy in the world to operate a cavern.

An ordained minister of the re-organized Church of Latter-Day Saints, he owns and manages the famous Onondaga Cave at Leasburg, Mo., in the Ozark Hills, which has been described as one of the 10 most beautiful caves in America.

"It was originally discovered by Daniel Boone and in size of rooms one room is nearly half a mile in length—it is second only to Carlsbad Cavern in New Mexico," he said.

While the cave is primarily a tourist attraction, the minister-owner, as well as the clergymen of other faiths, periodically holds candlelit services there on Sundays and religious holidays, such as Easter, using a natural rock formation as a pulpit.

These devotional meetings are well attended, attract worshippers from hundreds of miles away.

"It reminds many of the occasions in Roman times when Christians held their services in grottoes to avoid torture," said the Rev. Mr. Riley. "The candlelight lends a reverential atmosphere."

Before combining theology and spelunking, the study of caves, the colorful pastor, who is 43, had a brief career as a school teacher.

He is still active as a youth leader in the Ozark area.

After losing a teaching job, he hitch-hiked around the country for a while. Then, following a hitch in the Navy as radio technician aboard a destroyer in the South Pacific, he became first a guide and then manager at the Meramec Caverns at Stanton, Mo.

According to his own testimony, in those days he was a bit of a rounder.

"I got into the habit of using alcohol as a crutch," he recalled.

"I became a minister—I was ordained in 1954—primarily because of a need within myself. I realized I wasn't the man I wanted to be."

"I decided the only way a man can become immortal on this earth is to live in the minds of other people—but the only way to do that is to serve them."

Miss Jeanne Hames And A. C. Ball Are Wed

Miss Jeanne Lee Hames, daughter of Mrs. Marie Hames, of Harrison became the bride of Arnold C. Ball, son of Mrs. A. C. Ball of Hope and the late A. C. Ball, at 3 p. m. Sunday in the home of the bride's mother with Rev. F. H. Jacobsen officiating. A reception followed the ceremony. Nuptial music was recorded. Miss Donna Hames and Miss Ann Hames sisters of the bride, were candlelighters.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Ernest Goodwin of Benton, wore a Chapel-length gown of Chantilly lace and silk illusion, fashioned with a Queen Anne lace collar, illusion yoke and lace bodice. The bouffant tulle skirt had diagonal inserts of lace sprinkled with iridescent sequins and was worn over satin. Her illusion veil was attached to a small crown of lilies of the valley and velvet leaves. She carried a crescent of gardenias and pink sweet heart roses laced with lilies of the valley.

Miss Sue Carole Jones was the bride's only attendant. Donald Brown of Hope served as best man.

The bride is a graduate of Harrison High School and is associated with Arkansas Acceptance Corporation.

The bridegroom attended Louisiana Polytechnic Institute at Ruston, La., and now associated with West's Department Store. After a trip the couple will be at home in Harrison.

the specific provisions of the bond act," he said.

McClinton's comment was, "Is the governor's career at stake?" Rev. McDonald said, "It is the race issue, not integration. I regret that while the governor is a fellow Baptist he has no conscience against the evil of gam-

Canadians Under Wing of Benny

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Wayne and Shuster, the team of Canadian comedians who made their American debut as proteges of Ed Sullivan, will bow in Sunday night as stars of a situation comedy under the wing of Jack Benny.

In terms of prestige, this is very nice sponsorship.

The two comedians play social directors of a resort in the series one of those setups dear to Hollywood comedy writers because it opens the door on a wide variety of — hopefully — amusing situations. "Holiday Lodge" is made by Benny's production company and will be the summer replacement for his program.

"We aren't completely sold on the 'Holiday Lodge' title," confessed Johnny Wayne. "We thought it would be helpful if we could call it 'The Jack Benny Show.'"

The team is also a little dub-bling and would gladly sell the State of Arkansas out to the Oakland Jockey Club."

The bond issue is tied to income from the Oakland race track. Windsor said the governor "is a man very ill at ease and none of the answers he offered solved any of the problems facing the state."

Faubus said "that motley crew" was fighting him through the bonds "because I defended the people's right for self-government in 1957." He spoke of the Central High School integration crisis.

Faubus displayed a copy of the Detroit Free Press, which he said published an article saying moderates and "red necks" may hand together to "unhorse Gov. Faubus, damaging his prestige."

The governor showed a copy of an unsigned letter from a school superintendent to a teacher, which he said told the teacher that the pay check enclosed would be her last if she didn't vote against the bond issue.

Faubus also lashed the Arkansas Gazette, Arkansas Democrat, Pine Bluff Commercial and other newspapers for what he called biased reporting on the bond issue. "Never have I seen a greater deluge of propaganda," he said. "The opposition is obtaining advertising free of charge on the front pages."

He quoted a Gazette editorial which he said acknowledged the need for a construction bond issue. But he left out three paragraphs which qualified the editorial and said the "proposed bond issue might be reduced without rendering the program ineffective."

DOROTHY DIX

Bullying Husbands Beware!

Dear Helen: Thanks for your advice to take no more insults from my husband. It's helped me over the hurdles. I have a friendly talk with the older children once a week about right and wrong and in a way that won't make them lose respect for their father.

As you advised, I faced him down when he started bullying me. My neighbors can't believe I'm the same person. My husband treats me with new respect.

Why don't more women stand up for themselves and their rights? Don't get me wrong—I realize there are rights and wrongs on both sides but to many women just keep quiet and swallow the insults. I've corrected this situation, thanks to you.

I've talked to several down-trodden wives, trying to put spirit into them like you did in me, but they're so afraid it's a sorry sight. Their homes may be neat but they look so forlorn and beaten, it would wring your heart. I'm going to get these poor creatures together and help them read the riot act to their bullying husbands.

One of the nicest things happened. My brothers and sisters, seeing how I look heart and made a stand, are helping me by giving the children the price of a trip to visit all our family for three weeks this summer. And I've saved enough to visit my husband's cousin, a fine woman who always felt for me in my misery but said nothing.

So dear Helen, your advice has brought our families together. You sure must come across some very mixed-up people, like I was. God bless you and yours. —A Greatful Wife

Dear Grateful Wife: Even one letter such as yours justifies a month's columns. But the best advice is useless unless acted upon. You had the courage and the initiative to face your husband. In the end this will help him as much as you by uniting instead of dividing the family. May you be an inspiration to all down-trodden wives!

Dear Helen: About two months ago I wrote you asking for help. At that time I was living with my fiancée and nephew of our parents knew about it. I asked you about the formal.

"What we really wanted to make," explained Fernik Shuster, "was an underwater Western set in the 1920s. That would have really caught on."

The team, has specialized during their long career in Canada, where they are important TV stars, in satiric sketches.

what to do. You said to tell our folks and then get married. I literally kicked my fiancée out of the house last week and haven't seen or spoken to her since. If I would have taken your advice, I'd probably be in divorce court right now. "If the shoe fits, wear it." Well, this time it didn't fit and I'm glad I made my own decision. I doubt if you'll print this letter like you did the last one to show that you were wrong, but I would appreciate a reply. —D. W.

Dear D. W.: I'd like to hear your ex-fiancée's side of the story. It sounds to me as if she were the winner in this on-again-off-again affair.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Broken Home-mances."

Redlegs Down Cards Again; Dodgers Lose

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds defeated St. Louis 7-5 Thursday night for a two-game lead in the National League pennant race after the second place Los Angeles Dodgers lost 7-5 to the Chicago Cubs. The Dodgers open a three-game series at Cincinnati tonight.

Milwaukee spilled third place San Francisco four games from the top by beating the Giants 8-6. And Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia 5-1.

In the American League, Detroit defeated Washington 6-1 and stayed a game ahead of the second-place New York Yankees, who won 8-3 at Kansas City. Baltimore belted Minnesota 8-2 and Boston defeated the Los Angeles Angels 3-2.

The Reds, out-hit 8-6 by the Cards, came from behind with two runs in the fourth inning, then wrapped it up with a three-run sixth off loser Larry Jackson (3-7).

George Altman, Billy Williams and Jerry Kindall each hit home runs and drove in two runs as the Cubs beat the Dodgers for only the third time in 12 games. The Dodgers, who had homers by John Roseboro, Daryl Spencer and Duke Snider, blew a 4-1 lead.

The fifth-place Braves, winning four in a row for the first time, hammered five home runs, two by Frank Thomas, while putting away a three-game sweep over the Giants.

Two home runs by catcher Smokey Burgess drove in the Pirates' first four runs. Both shots were off John Buzhardt (2-8), who hit Burgess with a pitch in his third trip to the plate and was handed an automatic $50 "beanball" fine.

Citrus growers in Imperial Valley, Calif., estimate it takes about 1250 glasses of irrigation water to produce one glass of orange juice.

Final Rites for Coach Davis

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Funeral services for John (Red) Davis, 66, University of Arkansas tennis coach who died Thursday, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Watson Funeral Home here.

Davis became sports publicity director at Arkansas in 1947 and more recently was in charge of program publication and concession management at the university, in addition to his tennis duties.

While a sportswriter for the Lakeland, Fla., Star Telegram in 1922, he initiated the All-Southern high school football team and was chairman of the board of selection of the team for 25 years.

Maris Slams 27th, Ford Wins No. 12

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers retained a one-game lead in the American League with a 6-4 victory at Washington Thursday night while the second place New York Yankees, with Whitey Ford winning his 12th and Roger Maris hitting his 27th home run, breezed past Kansas City 8-3. The victory also gave the Tigers a three-game bulge over idle Cleveland as they head into a four-game series against the third place Indians tonight.

Baltimore beat Minnesota 8-2 and Boston defeated the Los Angeles Angels 3-2 in the only other games scheduled Thursday night.

In the National League, Cincinnati beat St. Louis 7-5, the Dodgers lost 7-5 to the Chicago Cubs, Milwaukee dropped third place San Francisco 8-6 and Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia 5-1.

Maris hit a pair of doubles and a single in addition to the homer, a three-run shot off loser Norm Bass (4-6) that capped a five-run second inning for the Yankees. It was Maris' 15th home run in June three shy of the major league record.

Consecutive doubles by Rocky Colavito and Norm Cash cracked a 4-4 tie in the seventh inning for the Tigers, who twice had to come from behind before handing the Senators their sixth straight defeat.

Gus Triandos drove in five runs with three hits, two of them doubles, as the Orioles beat the Twins and southpaw Jim Kaat (2-7).

There were 15 bases on balls but only five hits in Boston's squeaker at Los Angeles. The Red Sox, behind the two-hit pitching of rookie Galen Gisco and winning reliever Mike Fornieles (5-3), won it on a third-inning single by Chuck Schling.

Shawnee Indians are thought to have been the first inhabitants of Crowley's Ridge, in northeast Arkansas.

Golf Meet Planned on July 4

The first annual Hope Country Club Four-Ball Golf Tournament will be played on the Fourth of July.

Qualifying rounds of 18 holes may be played between June 21 and Saturday, July 1. Qualifying scores will be broken down to lead by slumping the Lookouts.

Four teams of two men each will be made up from each flight and will compete against each other for first place in their flight.

Qualifying scores will not count in the tournament. Tournament scores will be determined by each team's low ball on each hole not total scores of each team.

The tournament is open to club members and eligible non-members. Prizes will be awarded for winners in each flight and the medalist in the qualifying round.

The entry fee is $1.00.

A Pitch and Putt Contest and Driving Contest will follow with winners of each receiving prizes.

Mobile Edges the Travs in Close One

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It took a 3 1/2-hour donnybrook to do it, but Birmingham today has sole possession of first place in the Southern Association.

The Barons broke a deadlock with Chattanooga over the league scores, will be broken down to lead by slumping the Lookouts.

Four teams of two men each will be made up from each flight and will compete against each other for first place in their flight.

Qualifying scores will not count in the tournament. Tournament scores will be determined by each team's low ball on each hole not total scores of each team.

The tournament is open to club members and eligible non-members. Prizes will be awarded for winners in each flight and the medalist in the qualifying round.

The entry fee is $1.00.

A Pitch and Putt Contest and Driving Contest will follow with winners of each receiving prizes.
